25X1 9. [] GLC) Talked with Miss Sally Kelly, in the office of Senator George Murphy, regarding a constituent inquiry requesting information on yearly expenditures of the Agency. I explained to Miss Kelly that this information was classified but provided her with an Agency pamphlet which she might forward to the student for his use.

25X1 10. [] JSW) Talked with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and delivered to him extra copies of the papers furnished to him on 21 November 1967 which he was to transmit to Representatives Bow and Lipscomb.

25X1 11. [] JSW) Met with Mr. Wickwire, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, and reviewed the case with him. We debated the matter in a reasonable way and it appeared that he was disappointed but appeared to understand the legal situation. Subsequently, I discussed the case with Senator Jackson and debated it. Senator Jackson stated he was very unhappy about this and felt we were being unfair to the individual. He wanted me to pass this on to the Director.

25X1 12. [] JSW) Bruce Clarke, [] and 25X1 John S. Warner met with Jim Kendall and Colonel Harper, Senate Preparedness Subcommittee staff, giving them a briefing on the Soviet ICBM picture. There- 25X1 after, Messrs. [] and Warner met with Kendall, Gilleas and French to discuss arrangements for furnishing information which would not include specially classified documents or NIEs.
